Mr. Savignac reports, out to members of his family. A Planning Board had no right to specify that the 20 foot right of way should become a 40 foot road, and found that they had made a legal conclusion. The Board of Appeals had no right to specify that the 20 foot right of way should become a 40 foot right. The Planning Board rejected the plan, as specified that the 20 foot right of way should become a 40 foot road. public libraries. They are therefore provided with a type of service which falls to meet minimum standards suggested by the American Library Association.

Complicating this serious problem of keeping up with our next needs, Rep. Donohue warns, is the even more rapid growth of the school and college population, and the growing demands of students, workers, business and professional men and women and citizens in general for access to library resources. The representative maintains that the Commonwealth has a clear cut responsibility to help hard-pressed cities and towns provide adequate service and to help shape modern library service on a state wide basis.

VARIANCE GRANTED ON MONOCO LANE

The Sunoco Oil Company will be allowed to erect a filling station, opposite Cal's garage, on Main street, with pine island and lights 10 feet from the street line. Instead of 20 feet, as the law allows, according to a decision of the Board of Appeals dated May 14. The case was heard on April 14th.

The oil company will also be allowed to have a "Sunoco" sign, but at least 10 feet from the street. The appeal had moved a sign at the street line.

No objections were present at the hearing. The Planning Board had offered against the proposal.

GIRLS JOIN CUB SCOUTS

Nine Wilmington girls took part in a First Class Sover Scout weekend at Camp Runnels, the greater Lowell Girl Scout Camp, over the Memorial Day weekend. They were among the 87 girls and 13 adult staff members who took part, and who carried out a program much like that enjoyed during the summer season. The girls arrived Friday evening, carrying their bedrolls and supplies, and were met by a Scout team for a feast of fish that does not require cooking.
